

St. Walburg's Nyangao Referral Hospital

P. O. Box. 1002, Lindi Region - Tanzania, Mobile no. +255656227511

Email address: nyangaohospital@gmail.com Website: <http://www.nyangaohospital.or.tz>

JOB VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENTS

25.05.2026

St. Walburg's Nyangao Referral Hospital, located in the Catholic Diocese of Lindi and Mtama District Council – Lindi, We are seeking for a motivated Research Nurse (Study Nurse) and Ultrasound Technician to join our team for 2 years

1.0 Research Nurse (Study Nurse in the field of midwifery) – 1 Position

The hospital seeks to recruit a qualified nurse with a Bachelor's Degree in Nursing and experience or training in clinical research.

1.2 Qualifications

- Bachelor's Degree in Nursing
- Valid nursing license
- Good computer skills (MS Office and electronic data systems)
- Team player with good communication skills and a friendly personality
- Independent, organized, responsible, and reliable working style
- Experience and motivation in working with patients
- Excellent English language skills (spoken and written)
- Gained experience in the field of midwifery

2.2 Duties and Responsibilities

- Provide care and support to research participants, including regular patient visits
- Serve as a contact person for local healthcare staff
- Coordinate and implement operational research processes
- Carry out research support duties and documentation
- Prepare and participate in audits and evaluations
- Ensure research is conducted according to research protocols, GCP, and SOPs
- Work closely with researchers
- Perform practical duties including blood pressure measurement, sample handling and transportation, and collection of patient history
- Ensure data quality
- Participate in national and international meetings and training sessions

- Perform any other duties assigned by the supervisor related to education, experience, and skills

Salary

Salary scale according to Government procedures, specifically TGHS C.

2.0 Ultrasound Technician (Sonographer)

Applicants must possess qualifications in Ultrasound from government-recognized institutions and have at least two years of experience in obstetric ultrasound examinations.

2.1 Qualifications

- Completed training as a Medical Radiology Assistant (MTRA), Sonographer, or equivalent qualification
- Experience in obstetric ultrasound examinations
- Good communication skills and patient-centered attitude
- Ability to work independently, accurately, and reliably
- Team spirit and ability to collaborate in a multidisciplinary environment
- Good computer skills and willingness to work with digital systems
- Good English language proficiency; knowledge of German is an added advantage

2.3 Duties and Responsibilities

- Conduct high-quality obstetric ultrasound examinations
- Support doctors and midwives by providing accurate imaging and examination reports
- Ensure proper documentation and storage of imaging results in digital systems
- Prepare patients for examinations and explain procedures professionally
- Assist in maintaining ultrasound equipment and ensure compliance with hygiene and safety procedures
- Collaborate closely with medical, research, and nursing teams
- Participate in quality assurance and training activities
- Perform any other duties assigned by the supervisor

General Requirements

- Applicants must be Tanzanian citizens
- Applicants should be aged between 25–40 years
- Applicants should attach all academic and professional certificates
- Applicants should attach a detailed CV and recent passport-size photographs
- Experienced applicants should provide details of previous institutions worked for and employers

Application Procedure

Applications should be sent to:

Medical Officer In-Charge
St. Walburg's Nyangao Referral Hospital
P.O. Box 1002
Nyangao, Lindi, Tanzania

Email: nyangaohospital@gmail.com

Deadline for applications: 05/06/2026

